DAILY RACING FORM

ISSUED EVERY DAY.

DAILY RACING FORM PUBLISHING CO
EDITOR, F. H. BRUNELL.

REPORTER'S BROTHER WINS.

A pair of John McCafferty's cast offs, News-gatherer and Confession, met in yesterday's first Ideal Park race, and Reporter's brother won in a big gallop, with Confession an extremely easy second. News-gatherer received the proper attention and got a running start. Clay's ride on Confession was grotesque. The boy knows the good and bad spots of the track as well as acquaintance can equip him. Yet he took Confession down the back stretch in the deep going. There was a mile handicap on the card, and Glenmoyne, with top weight, was an odds-on favorite. He led gaily for three-quarters of a mile. Then Rondo challenged him, and in the run home the Kentucky Stable's colt outgamed the sprinter and won quite handily. Glenmoyne ran as though he was short. Rondo was not up to a bruising race and his trainer did not want to start him. Umbrella in the same race may have been ready but evidently "Wiley" Jones wasn't, and his ride caught the official eye. The boy is now on a vacation.

There was a rare lot of speed in the third race and betting on it was lively. Abuse, at the last minute, was backed to odds on and won right on the post by the shortest of noses from Uncas, who ran an excellent race.

The Ryan contingent backed their filly Fairy Queen III from 3 to 1 almost off the boards in the second race, and getting a running start she just lasted long enough to beat Pitfall. This made amends for the $2500 Eli Kindig cost the same combination Monday.

Newhouse and Necedah divided favoritism in the last race but The Ghost, sometimes as good as 50 to 1, beat them both rather handily.
